

Northwestern | Kellogg

LEADERSHIP TOOL KIT SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR SCHOOL LEADERS July 10-11, 2017

School leaders face significant pressures and challenges in leading their schools in today's uncertain world. This new program at Kellogg School of Management will provide a unique learning experience for school leaders to expand their leadership tool kit, enhance their management skills and learn tactics to support their personal development. Kellogg and Northwestern University faculty will share their insights along with seasoned education sector practitioners in a combination of lectures, small group sessions and interactive exercises. The program will provide plenary sessions on key leadership topics and smaller tracked sessions on leadership and general management. Participants will be able to customize the program to meet their individual needs.

Who Should Attend

- Superintendents, Principals, Assistant/Associate Principals, Lead Teachers
- School Senior Leadership Teams
- Board Members

Participants are encouraged to come as a team to this program and we have special pricing available for teams. This team could include principals, assistant principals, board members, and key instructional leaders. This unique educational experience provides an opportunity for school leaders to network with each other as well as to learn from leading experts in management.

Key Benefits

- Improve the ability to think strategically about your school
- Better tactics for persuading and influencing internal and external stakeholders
- Enhance leadership capabilities including ability to lead through times of crisis and XXX
- Understand the motivations and perspective of diverse community stakeholders
- Build general management capacity to strengthen the brand of your school and resolve conflicts effectively

To register, please visit the Nonprofit Executive Education website at:

<http://www.kellogg.northwestern.edu/executive-education/individual-programs/nonprofit-programs.aspx>